

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation
and how it
jeopardizes the electoral process of this country. One individual or one
corporation should not have so much
power in influencing
the outcome of our
elections.

In recent years,
this country has
fallen away from the standard of an unbiased media and
it is incumbent upon
the FCC to do what is within its powers
to rectify the situation. I request that you prevent Sinclair from using its stations for
political purposes.
